

Political Economy of Europe

History, Ideologies and Contemporary Challenges

Hardy Hanappi

Table of Contents

Introduction

What is Political Economy

Diachronic and synchronic approaches - and their formalisation

1 History

Introduction: Periodization of European History

1.1 From 1900 to 1945

1.2 From 1945 to 1990

1.3 From 1991 to 2008

1.4 From 2009 to 2020

2 Ideology

Introduction: The Impact of Paradigms

2.1 The market-oriented Paradigm

Welfare: From Feudalism to integrated capitalism

2.2 Marx' Paradigm

Class Struggle: From factories to the New Left

2.3 The Fascist Paradigm

Hierarchy: From racism to planned extinction

2.4 Newly emerging Paradigms

Movements: From progressive political parties to worldwide insurrection

3 Structure and Challenges

3.1 Economic Structure of Europe

3.2 Political Structure of Europe

3.3 Challenges

3.3.1 The Social Coherence Challenge

3.3.2 The Migration Challenge

3.3.3 The Environmental Challenge

3.3.4. The Corona Virus Challenge

3.3.5 Europe's Place in the Global Division of Labour

4 Afterthoughts on Europe's Future

4.1 Global Value Chains and continental political units

4.2 The EURO as the world's currency?

4.3 Europe's role in global finance